I am writing to urge you to lift the ban on bathhouses in Minneapolis. Sexual health is stigmatized when sex—a perfectly normal, human desire—is pushed into secrecy, and sexual assaults during casual encounters are more likely to occur in private locations than in public venues where others can intervene. If you vote to keep these archaic bans in place, you are voting with fear, shame, and bigotry, not with history and science.

Ward: I do not reside in Minneapolis

I don't know, share with all City Council
