Public Comment: Useless City Council

Reign Nightclub

According to Minneapolis 911 data, calls for service at 2901 Hennepin Ave. S. nearly tripled from 32 in all of 2024 to 104 in 2025. There have been 45 calls for service at Reign's address so far this year.

"Reign Event Center is owned by a Black-owned business that operates as a premier lounge and entertainment venue in Minneapolis' Uptown neighborhood"

Lol you held a liquor license because ICE Agents were allegedly served there, still never any evidence provided just fear mongering by the foreigners on the council. Now you easily advanced some GHETTO nightclub's license after it is a constant problem? Millions have been wasted on this location..

Additionally, you accepted the "business owner's" blatant lie of "Officers were pulled away for the Chief's Beat....". They just never hired any...

I think it has more to do with you all being bigots and not punishing the few bad people directly responsible. You won't do anything because of "who" owns it... It's ok to say that the Black owners of the Black focused club are not doing enough to keep the patrons of the Black focused club and other bystanders safe and it is causing significant financial and safety issues for everyone because you won't punish a few....

You keep complaining about the police budget and overtime - this is one of the main groups causing it... I mean open your damn eyes!!!! OVER 100 calls last year and 45 year-to-date, you don't see this behavior anywhere else! That's just documented calls, there are countless other times where people just decided not to call.

On a different note -

"I think about the high-profile case that happened at a downtown bar here in Minneapolis. There was a white man that was allowed entry wearing a Twins shirt and a Black man not allowed entry wearing a Twins shirt," Council member Jason Chavez said during the meeting, before referencing an instance where he says he was denied entry from an establishment because he was wearing a rainbow pouch. - Very interesting on the framing here, for some reason White was lowercase while black was uppercase???

Dude just stop lying - no one believes your little sob story... You literally just spew made up bullshit...

Instead of pushing this goofball and made up narrative - how about you do something about the window smashing, copper thefts, somali fraud & gang wars. we have real issues to fix and you're talking crying about some fictional story? We should be worried about the all somali security threats walking around, we dont know who is under those burkas... You want ICE agents without masks, yet we allow foreigners to do that? lol

You're all scum!
