Neighborhood Revitalization Policy Board

The Neighborhood Revitalization Program policy board was created by state statute in 1991.

- Approve neighborhood plans.
- Assists the department in advocating for neighborhood work.
- Reviews complaints (specific to NRP).

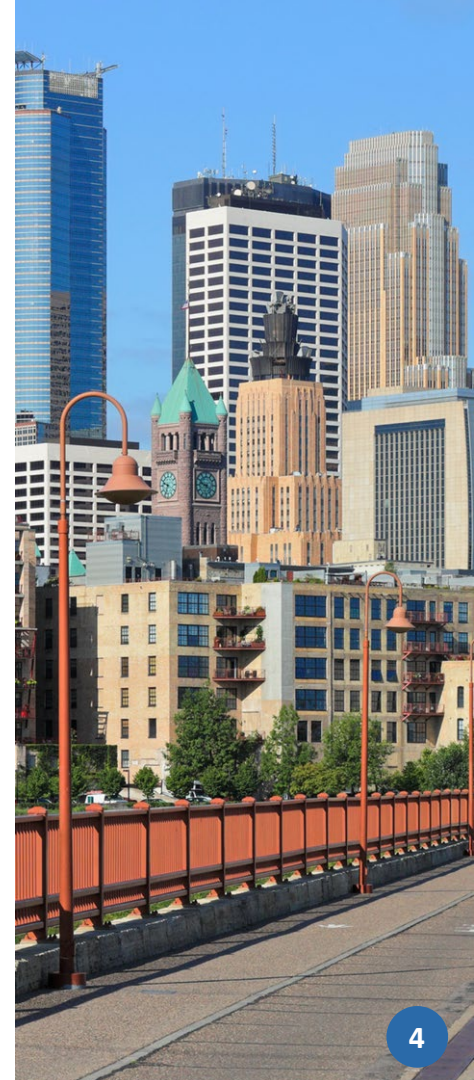

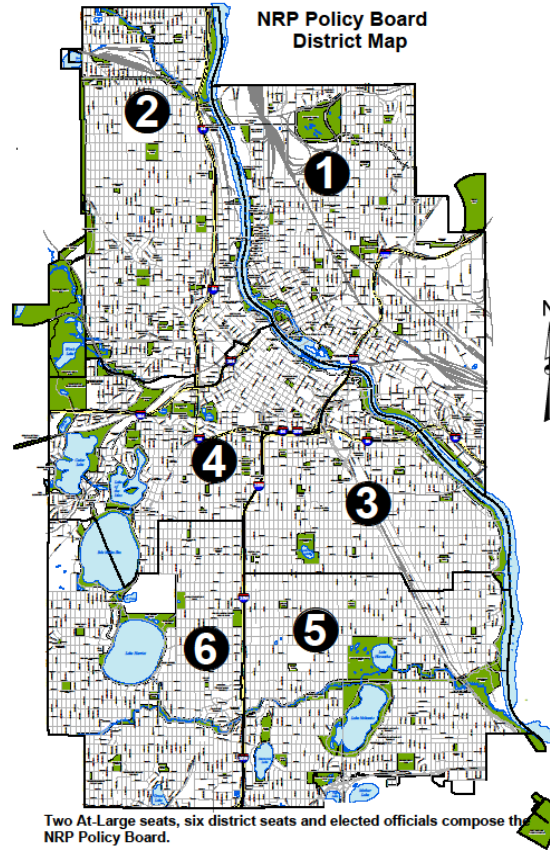

NRP Membership

The following are members of the NRP Policy Board, by statute:

1. Mayor's representative
2. Minneapolis City Council representative
3. Park Board Commissioner
4. Hennepin County Commissioner
5. Minneapolis School Board Director
6. Eight (8) neighborhood representatives as determined by an election.

Update of Ordinance

The change of ordinance will:

- Remove the election location (Community Connection Conference).
- Allow the Policy Board and City staff to determine the best location and time for elections.
- Ensures elections take place on even years, for neighborhood representatives.
