Thanks for that example. I was hoping it'd be something like that. Please see attached.

Some example species that I have already planted live plugs of or used a garden weasel and spread seed in late winter.

Side-oats Grama
Blue Grama
Prairie Brome
Silky Wild Rye
Virginia Wild Rye
Junegrass
Little Bluestem
Prairie Dropseed
Yarrow
Milkweed
Giant Hyssop
Lance-leaf Coreopsis
Purple Prairie Clover
Blazing Star
Wild Bergamot
Long-headed Coneflower
Gray Goldenrod
Stiff Goldenrod
Asters

Thanks,
Kinnell Tackett

Good morning,

It doesn't need to be anything fancy/formal at all.

Just a loose schedule, maybe drawings. We've had one other person do one recently, I've attached it. Their email provided a loose schedule of transition plan.

Hope this helps,

Joanna

Do you have an example project plan that you can share with me?

I have reached out to a few organizations but have not heard back from them and if this will cost money to produce / consult then I cannot afford it as I'm a single dad with 5 kids, and have the medical and grocery bills that go with that, so will bow to your wishes and mow down my flowers and prairie grasses along with the fescue
