Good afternoon Mai,

Some items have been removed from the yard. Other items have been moved in front of the garage at the neighbors house. There were people out there working explaining that they were setting the things out for people to take and for scrappers. The camper, boat, trailer, tires, pile of brick, pile of wood, tree debris, and miscellaneous items still remain.

Please let me know if there's anything else that you need.

Thanks,
Dick
